

JOB TITLE: Research Analyst

EXPERIENCE: 2-3 Years

Department/Group: Market Research

Location: On Site Noida

ROLE AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Excellent communication and businesses writing skills.
- Experienced with working on custom reports as well as syndicated reports independently.
- Conducting in-depth primary and desk research to gather insights for the project.
- Interest/Ability to understand the nuances across the public health/life sciences/nutrition/social sciences/healthcare or similar domains.
- Experienced providing end to end research project management, project planning, content evaluation.
- Ability to communicate effectively with stakeholders involved in the project.
- Skilled in report writing and presentations.

LOOKING FOR SOMEONE WITH

- Work on consulting and syndicated projects.
- Draft proposals in response to RFP/RFQ for consulting projects.
- Conduct qualitative and quantitative research starting from project scope, feasibility check, secondary research, primary research and discussions, market assessment and recommendations.
- Conduct in-depth interviews with various types of stakeholders.
- Prepare detailed qualitative reports based on research objectives in Word, PowerPoint formats.
- Interact with stakeholders and clients.
- Graduate/Postgraduate and experience in one or more of the following fields - economics, social science, political science, public health, life science, policy analysis, women and child health, and related domains.
- Preferable experience working with/for non-governmental organisations, development partners, charitable organisations, etc.